

Churchill Community Coalition & New Frontier Treatment Center are proud to announce the

2016 Color Blast

5K Fun Run/Walk

September 17, 2016

What is a "color blast" run? Runners will begin the race "clean" wearing a white race shirt, included in the entry fee, (or costumes if you prefer) and throughout the course runners are coated with a colored powder creating a work of art in motion! Course is 5k and will be timed. Participants can walk or run. Awards will be provided for the 1st through 3rd place for male and female in all age categories. Awards will also be given for Best Costume, Largest Team and Best Color Station. All colored powder is cornstarch based and non-toxic. No animals or bikes will be permitted in the race. Toddlers may be in strollers or wagons.

Who Benefits? Color Blast 5k Fun Run is a fund raiser with all proceeds benefitting the New Frontier Treatment Center Recovery Program and Churchill Coalition Youth Group Activities.

Who can run? Anyone can participate. Adults and Children of any age.
